a Happy Balance is the Real Success.

(A Popular Sellg Star.)

Miss Ivy Troutman, a famous Broadway star, will make her debut in motion pictures on the Mutnal program in the second Rights star feature release of the Gaumont company, entitled "The House with Nobody in It." This will be released September 22.

The is one of the early smannes of the Mutual's new $8,000,000 pro-

Miss Troutman made her first ap-pearance on the professional stage ten years ago. The first four years were spent principally with companies touring through the West. The last six years she has never played outside of New York City, which shows that she has been connected. only with successful plays which have bad long New York runs. This is the sort of star which will figure on the Mutual's regular program through all of the Gaumon Gaumont company's Ri-

Among the plays in which Miss Troutman has appeared may be men-tioned "The College Widow" and William H. 'Crane's production, "Father and the Boys." In 1911 she appeared in "Baby Mine," and in 1912 with Mme. Simone in "The Return from Jerusalero" In 1913.
Miss Troutman had the lead in "A Pair of Sixes" and last year she played opposite Lou Tellegen, in "Taking Chances."

A BIG PLANT.

The new Vitngraph plant at Prospect and Talmadge streets, Los Anseles, is rapidly nearing completion. When finished, it will be the largest closed in studio in California, covering more ground and having more withing they any other motion plant.

IRENE FENWICK TO BE AT BIJOU TOMORROW Local House to Show First Re- to her peculiar temperament and tal-

lease of New Kleine-Edi-

Conspicuous as the first release of the asserties and seems of the last few the newly organized Kleine-Edison years. Jenny Gay, an actress, is the Feature Flim Service, "The Woman object of the mad infatuation of Next Door" featuring dainty frene Penwick, comes to the Bijou theater mines. This character becomes her nemesis and eventually by poisoning the mines. The character becomes her nemesis and eventually by poisoning the mines. Will Make Her Screen Debut Monday. nemesis and eventually by boundary. nemesis and eventually by boundary. The Woman Next Door" is a ro- the mind of her husband causes a ments are evolved.

Knickerbocker Feature.

Wednesday, Miss Betty Harte, the lives every part he portrays. Away from the studio or theater, however, talented little Broadwiy favorite, will be the attraction at the Bijou in the three act Knickerbocker feature, "Nancy of Stony Isle." a beautiful romantic drams just suited at little so others do " tiful romantic drama just suited to this little leading lady's style. It is an unusually appealing emotional photoplay in which Miss Harte has full scope for her talents.

Thursday's feature offering will be the style of the s

Thursday's feature offering will be "The Climbers," from the famous play of the same name by Clyde Fitch. "The Climbers" is an impelling drama and deals in stirring situations and great climaxes. It is a beautiful story, too, and college. a beautiful story, too, and calls for an unusually elaborate setting, and a cast considerably above the average in histrionic ability. It is a photoplay that grips because it has plenty of action and most alluring

Scenery Governs Gowns for Films

Just what kind of porch pillars will they be? Billie Rhodes had to hunt up the Universal Film Company's scenic artist and ask this question before choosing the gown in the picture. There were going to be several scenes staged on that porch and the character of the pillars was very important. When he told her they would be straight white columns painted to look like marble she chose a trock of taffeta printed in rosebuds.

Now, the film actress has to think the "Broken Coih" saries is being produced you might see this able acproduced you might see this shie ac-tor and director worming his way out of a sewer and pursued by a fiend-ish band of Apache Indians. And, Immediately after the camera had stopped busing; you might see him jump out of the picture and instruct a band of soldiers how to use their

FRANCIS FOR CITED DESCRIPTION OF THE BROWEN COUNTY WHICH

By Double Work

rifles.
"The Broken Coin" has been such a successful film story that it will be continued during fourteen more than nint became so involved be continued during fourteen more reals. The plot became so involved toward the end of the last reel, and such spiendid possibilities of new things to happen presented themselves that the story just had to go on and unwind itself.

the flowers of her taketa gown would POLICE RELOUES

POPULAR UNIVERSAL CONSIderED BEAUTY AND A STATE OF THE LARGE SOWN WOULD WARRE DILLERS USED IN THE POPULAR THE WANTE DILLERS HAD BEEN PAINTED BY THE POPULAR THE WANTE DILLERS HAD BEEN PAINTED BY THE POPULAR THE WANTE DILLERS HAD BEEN PAINTED BY THE CAMERA OF DILLERS HAD BEEN BEFORE THE CAMERA THE CAMERA

film is to be shown

Picture in Which Reine Davis Is "Double Star" Orpheum Monday.

The World Film Corporation presents the five part photoplay, "Sunday," based on Thomas Raceward's successful stage play of the same name Monday as the special ordering at the Orpheum theater. The film is the second George W. Lederer "film motion" (Mr. Lederer will have it that way), and it is well worthy of this very experienced stage director's reputation and abilities. He has certainly made good as a "movie" producer in a very short space of Few movie fans have not wondered at times if their favorite players real-by lived the parts in which they ap-by lived the parts in which they appear. Because of the consistently interesting work they do it would seem that their whole heart was wrapped up in their work but when one considers that they must work all day, six days a week it would seem that they would in time come to regard their efforts merely as "work" and not pay so much attention to the

Tyrone Power

Tyrone Power

(A Penular Selia Star.)

In start of six days and producer in a very short space of time.

Reline Davis, who makes her debut in motion pictures in this offering, also scores a great success in the part of Sunday, an orphan girl, brought up like a hoy by four great hearted lumber lacks, When ther lover proves talse and tries to betray her, they kill him. Sent to a convent and educated, she becomes extremely ladylike and refined and attracts the love of a manly admirer in Engthe love of a manly admirer in Eng-

But her heart is in the lumber camp and she returns to "the boye" followed, however, by her lover who secures her after many adventures.

PICTURE RIGHTS

To Scarborough Play, "At Bay," Are Purchased by Pathe.

Pathe announces the purchase of the picture rights to George Scarborrough's play, "At Bay," which had a long run both on Broadway and on the road, "At Bay," sa society melodram's showing the persecution of a charming girl at the hands of a blackmailer, and is full of good situations.

The name of the producer and the cast will be announced last.

The name of the producer and the cast will be announced last.

The last will be announced last.

In This Film Play

The film, in fact, is packed with incident and excitement; there are scenes in England as well as in the United States, and all of them are of singular beauty, pictorially chosen and splendidly photographed.

And the acting is convincing and splrited. Supporting Miss Davies, there are such famous people as there are such famous people as son," and she appears bowing to an Montague Love, William H. Tooker, appreciative audience and receiving there are such famous people as son," and she appears bowing to an Montague Love, William H. Tooker, appreciative audience and receiving Charles Trowbridge, Jeannette Bathe congratulations of the manager geard and others.

ANOTHER BY MACQUARRIE.

Murdock MacQuarrie is staging O Scarborough Play, "At Bay," Are Purchased by Pathe.

Pathe announces the purchase of
Pathe announces the purchase of the picture rights to George Scarbor.

Pathe announces the purchase of Tole. The film will be released in

Series of Bloom Center Stories in Films Has Not a Single "Chase."

Miss Maibelle Helkes Justice, the well known authoress, who wrots a number of "The Chronicles of History toplays, has been happy in her con-ception of true rural American char-acter. Many of the characters which disport throughout the twelve two reel coincides were surely drawn from real life.

For example, here is the old maid Miss Selina Tubbs, who is secretly in love with the village postmaster; there is Percy Pinkham, in love with Margaret Tate. editress of "The Weekly Bugle" the county seat newspaper; there is Johnny West, the fat boy "journalist" who is also correspondent for the dity newspapera; there is Constable Pium, guardian of the peace and guardian of everything else; Mrs. Plum, who continually keeps an eye on her doughty flushand and all the fest of the characters true to the great middle western United to the great middle western United

"The Chronicles of Bloom Center" are being filmed by the Sellg Polyscope Company and will be released soon. They will undoubtedly inaugurate a new era in film comedy. There isn't a "chase" in the entire Series. series. Each picture play has a dis-tinct plot, but the same characters and the same environment is con-tinued throughout the entire Chroncles of Bloom Center."

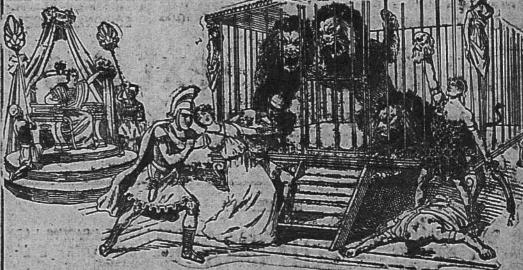

SUCCESSFUL

ROBINSON GRAND

Preformance Starts at 9 O'clock Sharp

Leroy, I alma & Bosco

The world's mast accomplished Illusionists, Necromancers and Magicians, assisted by an exceptionally Brilliant Company of European Artists

MANY NEW AND STARTLING ILLUSIONS

"The Devil's Cage," -- A Thriller.

"There and Back" -- The Mystery.

"The Witch's Song" -- It's Beautiful.

$1,000.00 to any one who can successfully solve the Mystery "Where do the Lions Go?"

EVERY ACT AND ECATURE NEW THIS YEAR.

Prices: 25, 50, 75, $1.00 A Few Choice Seats at $1.50.

Seats Ready at Box Office Tuesday Morning at 9 O'clock.

OUR PRPOGRAM IS WONDERFUL FOR THE COMING WEEK

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 20TH Mammoth Production by THE SHUBERTS

REINE DAVIS

5 Acts. Ethel Barrymore's Great

-TUESDAY-(Marvelous Mutual Masterpiece)

JOHN EMERSON 5 Acts. A Glowing Drama of Stage

Life. -WEDNESDAY-

(Universal Broadway Feature) HOBART

'A Little Brother of the Rich" 5 Acts. Interpreted by a Stellar

-THURSDAY-

Catherine Countiss

Bosworth

'A Modern Magdalene

5 Acts. An all-star cast with Lionel Barrymore. Famous novel by C. Hadden Chambers.

-FRIDAY-(Miraculous Mutual Masterpiece)

WM. S. HART

'The Darkening Trail"

5 Acts. A Superbe Cast, including Enid Markey.

- - SATURDAY-(Special Mutual Feature Drama)

HENRY ALDRICH

The Brand Blotters" A Tale full of Action, by WILLIAM RAINE.

CONTINUOUS FROM 18:80 TO 11:00 P. M.

BATURDAY FROM 12:00 TO 11:00 P. M. ATTEND OUR POPULAR MATINEES. OUR HOUSE IS COOL